THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE DATA CENTER PROGRAM

THE CONCEPT

The Pennsylvania State Data Center (PSDC) Program has been established to improve access to and use of statistical resources available from the United States Bureau of the Census and other sources. Census Bureau products that can be accessed through this PSDC Program include all major statistical programs covering such areas as: population, housing, agriculture, manufacturing, retail and wholesale trade, governments, etc. Data are generated in printed reports, microfiche, and computer files. Information and services are available through the PSDC office at The Pennsylvania State University/Capitol Campus, the Pennsylvania State Library, or through the network of Affiliate Data Centers (ADCs) located across the Commonwealth.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE DATA CENTER

Data Products and Services

The PSDC located at The Pennsylvania State University/Capitol Campus will provide products and services to any interested user. State agencies, local governments, businesses, nonprofit organizations, or researchers may all obtain information housed and generated by the PSDC. Costs incurred by the PSDC in providing products and services will be charged to the user.

Products and services available through the PSDC are:

- Census Bureau printed reports and microfiche
- Census Bureau reference maps
- PSDC printed reports
- Consultation on data availability and use
- Computer tape processing
- Demographic and geographic profiles
- Statistical analyses
- Statistical mapping and geoprocessing

Training and Information

The PSDC facilitates education and training in the use of statistical resources by participating in conferences, workshops, and training courses throughout the state. The PSDC also publishes a periodic newsletter about user services and new statistical products.

If you would like information about training sessions or would like to receive copies of the newsletter please contact the Pennsylvania State Data Center.

INTRODUCTION

This report contains selected 1980 Census of Population and Housing statistics for Pennsylvania. The geographic areas for which data is presented are: the Commonwealth; its 67 counties and 2,580 local municipalities.

The statistics presented for counties and municipalities represent only a small fraction of the data from the 1980 Census. Figures 1, 2, and 3 present the full range of data items that are currently available at several geographic levels.* Users needing information for specific geographic areas should contact the Pennsylvania State Data Center or one of its Affiliate Data Centers (see inside back cover for their listing).

In addition, the data presented in this report represents only what the U.S. Census Bureau refers to as "100 Percent Items." "Sample Items" or detailed characteristics such as income, education, and employment will not be available for Pennsylvania until 1983. Upon release of that data by the Census Bureau a second report will be produced by the Pennsylvania State Data Center.

PENNSYLVANIA GENERAL POPULATION AND HOUSING CHARACTERISTICS: 1980

Population Change

According to the 1980 Census of Population, the population of the United States on April 1, 1980, was 226,504,825. This number represents an 11.4 percent increase over the 1970 population, which was about 203 million.

Pennsylvania's population increased from 11,800,766 to 11,863,895 persons over the decade. Figure 5 presents the distribution of the State's population by county.

The increase of 63,129 persons is a percentage increase of about 1/2 of one percent. This slow rate of growth has caused the Commonwealth to move from third to fourth place in total population among the nation's states. More significant, however, is the decrease in Pennsylvania's share of the nation's total population which has meant the loss of two seats in the House of Representatives.

Figures 6 and 7 depict the 1970 to 1980 change in Pennsylvania's population by county. The majority of the state's counties (57 of 67) increased in population over the decade. The biggest percentage gainers were Pike County (54.6%) and Monroe County (52.8%). Bucks County experienced the largest net gain with an increase of 69,483 persons.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

PERCENT POPULATION CHANGE 1970 TO 1980
STATE CHANGE = .53
SOURCE: 1980 CENSUS OF POPULATION

PA. STATE DATA CENTER: STATISTICAL GRAPHICS SERVICE

Philadelphia County (-13.4%), Allegheny County (-9.7%) and Delaware County (-8%) experienced the greatest population losses over the decade. However, these counties are still the most densely populated in the state ranging from 2,000 persons per square mile in Allegheny County to 3,000 and 12,400 in Delaware and Philadelphia Counties respectively.

The various rates of change in county population in Pennsylvania reflects the national pattern of non-metropolitan counties, made up of rural areas and small towns, growing faster than metropolitan counties and large cities.

This shift is further illustrated by population changes in the different types of Pennsylvania municipalities. All Pennsylvania Cities except Greensburg lost population, as did nearly two-thirds of the Boroughs. However, nearly 90% of the state's Townships gained in population over the decade.

Age

For the second time in the nation's history the median age of the U.S. population has risen to 30 years.

Figure 8 illustrates the distribution of Pennsylvania's 1970 and 1980 population by selected age groups. The decrease in the proportion of the population under 15 years of age and the increasing proportions in the 25-34, 55-64, and 65 and over age cohorts indicate that the increased median age is a result of declining fertility, aging of the "baby boom" cohort, and the increasing longevity of the population.*

Race and Spanish Origin

In 1980, 83.2% of the U.S. population reported their race as white. Blacks made up 11.7% of the population; Asian and Pacific Islanders equaled 1.5%; American Indians, Eskimos, and Aleuts combined comprised 1.6%; and all others added up to 3.0%. Of the total population 6.4% indicated that they were of Spanish Origin.

In Pennsylvania, 89.7% of the residents reported their race as white; 8.8% Black, and all other races combined comprise 1.4%. The population of Spanish Origin residents is 1.3% of the total population.

Housing Units and Households

As indicated in Figure 9 Pennsylvania, like the Nation as a whole, experienced a substantial increase in housing units in the 1970's. The statewide increase was 17.1%. All 67 counties increased the number of units. The rate of increase ranges from 1.7% in Philadelphia County to 76.9% in Monroe County. However, the number of persons per household decreased in Pennsylvania from 3.2 persons in 1970 to 2.7 persons in 1980. The major factor in this decline of household size is the increase in the number of single-person households over the decade.

*Tables like Figure 8 for each of Pennsylvania's counties can be obtained from the Pennsylvania State Data Center for the cost of reproduction and handling.

1980 CENSUS DEFINITIONS AND PROCEDURES

In all, 50 separate questions were asked of respondents in the 1980 Census, covering a wide variety of data on population and housing. Thirty-two items dealt with characteristics of the respondents, and 27 dealt with the housing in which they lived.

Some questions were asked of all respondents. These items are called the "100 Percent Items" in this report and reports of the Bureau of the Census. Most questions, however, were asked of a sample of persons and housing units and are referred to as "Sample Items." The proportion of housing units or households that received the "Sample" form was one out of six in most areas. In areas estimated to have 2,500 or fewer persons, the sampling ratio was three out of six.

Most of the 1980 Census items are more or less self-explanatory. A few definitions, however, require special attention when using the census data:

Family - A group of two or more related persons residing together. A household can contain only one family. A person maintaining a household alone, or with unrelated persons only, is regarded as a householder but not as a family.

Household - The person(s) living in a single housing unit. Household is generally synonymous with the term "Occupied Housing Unit."

Living Quarters - Living quarters are structures occupied or intended for occupancy and are divided into (1) Housing Units and (2) Group Quarters. Group Quarters, which consist of institutions, dormitories, military barracks, rooming houses, and similar living arrangements, are not included in the housing inventory; no housing information was collected about them.

Plumbing Facilities - Complete plumbing facilities include hot and cold piped water, a flush toilet, and a bathtub or shower, for the exclusive use of the household and located in the respondent's living quarters.

Vacant Housing Units - The Census definition of a vacant housing unit is broader than that used in some other housing surveys. The count of vacant housing units in the 1980 Census includes units not occupied at the time of enumeration and units that may actually be occupied at enumeration time by persons whose usual residence is elsewhere.

The population characteristics -- Race and Spanish Origin -- must be interpreted strictly according to the 1980 Census definitions:

Race - There were 15 race categories listed in the 1980 questionnaire, and respondents were asked to specify with which of the 15 categories they identified themselves. Since the Census obtained information on race through self-enumeration, the data represents self-classification by the respondents. The concept of race as used in the Census does not denote any clear-cut scientific definition of biologic stock.

Spanish Origin - Respondents were asked to self-identify whether they were of one of four categories of Spanish origin or descent. This question was asked of all respondents, and answers to it are independent of answers to the question about race.

While data for the Census of Population and Housing were collected from individual households, information about each respondent is not released. Instead, the data are aggregated to various levels of Census Geography. In general, the detail available for Census data decreases as the level of Census Geography becomes smaller.

Questions from the Census are summarized to different geographic levels so it is not always possible to find the specific information needed for the particular level of geography being analyzed.

All data collected in the 1980 Census are available at the statewide level, SMSAs, and large counties and cities. Most data are available for all counties, Minor Civil Divisions, Places, and Census Tracts. For smaller areas of Census Geography, such as Enumeration Districts, Block Groups, and Blocks, considerable information can be summarized; but the data are not as detailed as for the larger areas.

An additional restriction on data availability arises from "suppression." Data that would ordinarily be available are suppressed for an area when there are too few persons or housing units to meet the Bureau's standard of data release or where individuals or housing units could be identified by subtraction of one category of a table from another category of the table.

Because of data suppression, tables for small geographic areas may not show counts in some cells. Also, totals resulting from summation of small areas to a larger area (such as blocks to a tract) may not match the totals tabulated from records for the larger area, because some data in one or more of the small areas may be suppressed but the data for the larger area may not be suppressed.

Six basic counts are never suppressed for any area:

Total Population
Total Housing Units
Year-round Housing Units
Occupied Units
Vacant Year-round Housing Units
Count of persons and households in each Race or Spanish Origin Group

For other characteristics, the general criteria for supression is fewer than 15 persons or five housing units in the geographic area.

Appendix A

1980 Census
Profile Footnotes

1. The count of households in the complete count tabulations by definition equals the number of occupied housing units. In this document, the terms households and occupied housing units are used interchangeably.

2. Vacant seasonal/migratory units are excluded from all other tabulation matrices.

3. For data tabulated on a 100-percent basis, includes all persons in the category "Other." For sample data, excludes those persons who have a write-in entry of an Asian or Pacific Islander group in the "Other" category.

4. "Asian and Pacific Islander," in the 100-percent tabulations, includes: "Japanese," "Chinese," "Filipino," "Korean," "Asian Indian," "Vietnamese," "Hawaiin," "Guamanian," and "Samoan." "Asian and Pacific Islander," in sample tabulations, includes the groups listed above and those persons who have a write-in entry of an Asian or Pacific Islander group in the "Other" category.

5. Relatives include: householder, spouse, and the questionnaire categories: "Son/daughter," "Brother/sister," "Father/mother," and "Other relative." Tabulations of "Other relatives" include all categories not shown separately in the matrix.

6. Nonrelatives include the questionnaire categories "Roomer, boarder," "Partner, roommate," "paid employee," and "Other nonrelative." Tabulations of "Nonrelatives" include all categories not shown separately in the matrix.

7. Tabulations of "Persons in household" based on 100-percent data by definition are the same as tabulations of "Persons in unit." The phrase "Persons in household" is used unless the matrix is stratified by a housing item such as tenure, plumbing facilities, etc., in which case, the phrase "Persons in unit" is used. Tabulations of "Persons in unit" based on sample data are not necessarily the same due to differences in the procedures used to inflate sample population and housing data.

8. A "Child of householder" includes any son, daughter, stepchild, or adopted child of the the householder. An "Own child of householder" is a never-married child under 18 years of age who is a son, daughter, stepchild, or adopted child of the householder. "Related children" include not only own children but also all other family members, regardless of marital status, who are under 18 years old, except the householder or spouse. Foster children are included in the "Nonrelative" category.

9. Vacant housing units include the questionnaire categories: "For rent," "For sale only," "Rented or sold, not occupied," "Held for occasional use," and "Other vacant." Tabulations of "Other vacant" include all categories not shown separately in the matrix.

10. This aggregate, along with the relevant count will permit the computation of a mean. For example, the aggregate value for the owner-occupied noncondominium units will yield the mean or average value when divided by the number of specified owner-occupied noncondominium units, and the aggregate number of rooms for occupied and vacant year-round units yields the mean or average number of rooms. (See footnote 14 prior to computing mean value.)

11. The noncondominium value distribution is restricted to certain kinds of "owner-occupied" or "vacant for sale only" units. The following are excluded from the tabulations on value for noncondominium units:
    A. Units at an address with two or more units
    B. Units on 10 or more acres
    C. Units with a commercial establishment or medical office on the property
    D. Mobile homes or trailers

    Value is tabulated for all owner-occupied and vacant-for-sale condominium units.

12. Contract rent is tabulated for all "renter-occupied" and "vacant-for-rent" units except 1-family houses on a property of 10 or more acres. Units tabulated in the "No cash rent" category are all occupied housing units reported as "No cash rent" except one-family houses on 10 or more acres.

13. Lacking complete plumbing (facilities) for exclusive use includes: complete plumbing (facilities) but also used by another household, some but not all plumbing facilities, or no plumbing facilities.

14. Multiply the aggregate value by $250 to obtain the true value. The tabulation was scaled by a factor of $250 for tally purposes.

AFFILIATE DATA CENTERS

The purpose of the Affiliate Data Center (ADC) network is to more directly meet the needs of local users. The ADCs maintain a publicly accessible collection of census materials and reports. They have personnel trained to assist data users in locating data items and are available for consultation. The ADCs provide a wide range of products and services on a cost recovery basis.

Statewide Affiliate

The governor has designated the Health Data Center as the official state center for health statistics. As a member of the Affiliate Data Center network, the Health Data Center provides statistical support services to meet the needs of federal, state, and local data users and providers in both the public and private sectors.
